ABOUT US

We are an innovative, multifaceted, and ISO certified language service provider specializing in life sciences, legal & patents, and corporate services such as e-commerce, marketing, or internal and external communications. Founded in 2011, Lingualife has provided world-class translation and interpreting services to over 500 clients around the world since. Headquartered in Berlin with offices in Geneva, we are a strategic partner for diverse businesses in the legal, medical, and commercial sectors, and international NGOs like the World Health Organization and UNICEF.

LEGAL & PATENTS

Need a translation of a legal contract, patent or patent litigation documents, or court judgment? Perhaps you need expert interpreting services in court? Our highly specialized legal & patent team will help you meet strict quality standards within very tight deadlines.

CORPORATE

About to expand your business into new, international markets? We translate and localize your corporate communications, e-commerce content, financial and legal documentation, training & eLearning courses, and marketing materials.

LIFE SCIENCES

We understand the unique challenges and prerequisites within the life sciences sector, allowing us to expertly translate your pharmaceutical, medical, regulatory, and clinical trial documentation with unparalleled quality and the utmost care.
